On that same date, the defendant made an initial appearance before the Court. The defendant was detained pending further action by the Court. The Southern District of California has respectfully declined a transfer of jurisdiction of this case.

According to the complaint, on May 14, 2011, the defendant made application for admission in the United States from Mexico at the San Ysidro Port of Entry via the pedestrian lanes. Upon inspection, the defendant presented a United States birth certificate and a counterfeit identification card. Upon questioning, the defendant stated he was born in California and was returning to the United States to work at NASSCO. When asked for his California identification card, the defendant stated he lost it on the trolley. Upon further questioning, the defendant admitted his true identity and citizenship.

A superseding indictment was filed under docket number 3:11CR02743-BEN, on July 13, 2011, charging Eliezar Fernandez-Carrasco with count 1: Attempted Illegal Entry (felony), in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1325; count 2: Attempted Entry After Deportation, in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1326(a) and (b); count 3: False Claim to United States Citizenship, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 911; and count 4: Aggravated Identity Theft, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1028A, in the Southern District of California. The defendant pled guilty to count 2 on May 21, 2012, and the remaining counts were dismissed. The Court imposed a sentence of 36 months incarceration, with 36 months of supervised release to follow.

The Court previously issued a warrant for the arrest of the defendant to answer to the allegations.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
